Description

Picture waking up to your private chef preparing breakfast while tropical birds sing in the garden. That's just another morning at Villa Adia in Casa de Campo's peaceful El Molino neighborhood.

This five-bedroom retreat sleeps 13 guests across thoughtfully designed spaces. The master suite offers a king bed and workspace. Two guest rooms each feature queen beds. A dedicated kids' room with bunk beds keeps younger guests happy. Every bedroom includes its own bathroom: no morning queues here.

The heart of the villa? An open-plan living area where soaring wooden ceilings meet floor-to-ceiling glass walls. Natural light floods the space, highlighting the contemporary furnishings and that eye-catching blue statement chair. The chef's kitchen, complete with marble island, becomes a natural gathering spot.

Your dedicated team handles everything. The chef crafts meals from fresh local ingredients. The butler anticipates your needs. The housekeeper maintains pristine spaces. Service runs from 8 AM to midnight, with 24-hour concierge support for late-night cravings or last-minute plans.

Outside, the private pool beckons. Kids gravitate toward their own playground visible from the main areas, parents can relax while keeping an eye out. Two included golf carts make exploring Casa de Campo effortless. The famous Teeth of the Dog golf course, Marina, and Altos de Chavón village are minutes away.

Modern comforts include air conditioning throughout, strong WiFi, and an impressive wine cellar for evening selections.
