Description

Picture your morning coffee overlooking lush tropical gardens. Villa Aida sits in Casa de Campo's exclusive Barranca neighborhood, where privacy meets paradise.

Six bedrooms sleep fourteen guests comfortably. The master features a king bed. Another bedroom has a queen. Four more rooms offer flexible twin configurations. Each bedroom comes with its own bathroom and generous closet space.

The heart of the villa? A stunning outdoor living area. The pool sparkles under Dominican sunshine. A traditional thatched-roof gazebo shelters the outdoor dining table. Perfect for long lunches that drift into sunset dinners.

Inside, contemporary design meets Caribbean warmth. Wood floors flow throughout. The living room opens to the pool deck through walls of glass. The kitchen features bright blue cabinets and modern appliances. Stone accent walls add texture. Exposed beam ceilings create that vacation feel.

Your dedicated staff handles everything. The cook prepares local dishes and international favorites. The housekeeper maintains pristine spaces. The waiter serves poolside drinks. They work 8am to midnight, letting you truly relax.

Two golf carts make exploring Casa de Campo simple. Hit the beach at Minitas. Play a round at Teeth of the Dog. Dine at the marina. Airport transfers are included.
