Description

Wake up to the Bay of Naples spread before you like a painting. From this hillside sanctuary above Sorrento, Mount Vesuvius frames one side of your view while Capri floats on the horizon.

Seventeen bedrooms sleep 31 guests across four floors connected by private elevator. Each room tells its own story through art: Kandinsky swirls dance above beds, Klimt's gold leaf catches morning light, Matisse colors splash across walls. The top-floor suite opens to a private terrace where you can watch ferries trace paths to distant islands.

Two pools cascade down terraced gardens. One heats for cooler months. The professional kitchen gleams with turquoise stripes and commercial-grade everything. A Jacuzzi hides in one bedroom suite.

Daily housekeeping keeps things pristine. Fresh towels appear each day. The villa's audio system streams your playlists to every corner. Sorrento's restaurants and shops wait 10 minutes away, but the onsite Verdemela Restaurant means you might never leave.

Host 50 for dinner under the stars. Exchange vows as the sun sets behind Capri. Or simply gather your favorite people and disappear into this private world where every window frames the sea.

Marina di Puolo's sandy beach lies 4km away. Positano, 20km. But with terraces this perfect and pools this private, leaving feels unnecessary.

Daily rates range from €6,700 to €8,200 depending on season.
