Description

Step through a dramatic koi pond entrance into Villa Geva, where tropical luxury meets golf course tranquility. This five-bedroom estate spreads across manicured grounds in Casa de Campo's Las Palmas neighborhood.

The pool steals the show. White sculptural chairs sit directly in turquoise waters, flanked by stone urns that frame views of the rolling fairways. A thatched-roof gazebo provides shade for afternoon lounging while multiple pavilions offer spots for everything from morning coffee to sunset dinners.

Inside, soaring wood-beam ceilings crown expansive living spaces that flow seamlessly outdoors. Each bedroom tells its own story: from nautical-themed retreats with bunk beds perfect for kids to master suites draped in chandeliers and rich fabrics. Natural stone bathrooms feature walk-in showers and trailing greenery that brings the outside in.

Your dedicated team handles every detail. The cook prepares Dominican specialties while you sip cocktails poolside. The housekeeper keeps everything pristine. The waiter serves meals wherever you choose - perhaps at the outdoor dining pavilion or the formal indoor table beneath ornate chandeliers.

Days here unfold at your pace. Practice your swing on the adjacent course. Float in the pool's shallow lounging area. Gather the whole group (the villa sleeps 14) for barbecues on the terrace. When you need anything beyond the property, your 24/7 concierge arranges it all.
