Description

You wake up, walk out your door, and your feet hit sand. That's Villa Incantata. A private beach villa in Punta Águila, one of the most exclusive corners of Casa de Campo.

Eight bedrooms. Nine bathrooms. Room for 18 guests. This isn't a hotel suite stretched thin, it's an actual home designed for groups who want space without sacrificing togetherness.

The property sits directly on the Caribbean. Your own stretch of soft sand and calm water, no sharing required. Behind you, a central pool surrounded by stone terraces where everyone naturally gravitates. The tropical gardens connect it all: ocean views on one side, lush greenery everywhere else.

Inside, the rooms are bright. Floor-to-ceiling openings pull in natural light and sea breeze. Five king suites, one queen room, and two bedrooms with double queens give you flexibility for couples, families, or a mix of both. Natural materials throughout. Soft tones. Caribbean style that actually feels Caribbean, not a theme park version of it.

A full staff runs the house: two butlers, a private chef, housekeeper, two maids, a gardener, and 24-hour concierge. Your cook handles meals. Your butler handles everything else. Yacht charters, spa treatments, yoga sessions, private trainers, arranged through the concierge whenever you want them.

Casa de Campo resort access is included with registration. Minitas Beach, the hotel pool, golf at discounted rates, and medical services if needed.

Rates start at $13,000/week (low season) up to $28,000/week (peak). Resort fees apply: $25/adult per day, $12/child (4-12), free under 4.
