Description

Wake up two minutes from Minitas Beach.

Villa Jardin sits in Casa de Campo's Jardin Minitas area. Five bedrooms. Six bathrooms. Space for twelve people. Your entire crew can spread out here.

The pool is what you'll remember. Private. Surrounded by tropical gardens that actually look maintained, not like someone gave up halfway through. You'll spend mornings here with coffee. Afternoons with a drink. The lounge areas around it were clearly built by someone who gets that Caribbean living happens outside.

Inside, the place feels open. Big glass doors connect the living room to the garden. Natural light everywhere. The kitchen has what you need—full-size fridge, oven, coffee maker. The dining room opens straight to the garden because eating with a view beats staring at a wall.

Each bedroom has AC, a safe, and a Smart TV. Two master bedrooms with king beds. Three more with queen beds. Private balconies let you catch the breeze without dealing with everyone else.

The staff situation is solid. A housekeeper and cook work 8am to 4:30pm. A gardener keeps everything looking right. You get 24-hour concierge if you want to book yacht charters, private chefs, or whatever else comes up.

Work-friendly too. Real desk. Phone. Fast Wi-Fi. You can take calls without background noise.

Casa de Campo resort access comes with a registration fee (adults $25/day, kids 4-12 years $12/day, under 4 free). This gets you towels at Minitas Beach, golf discounts, and concierge services.

Rates run $4,000-$6,500 depending on season.
