Description

Wake up to the Caribbean Sea right outside your window. Villa Michelle sits on the oceanfront in Punta Aguila, one of the most exclusive corners of Casa de Campo.

This five-bedroom villa sleeps 11 guests comfortably. Three bedrooms have king beds, two have queen beds, and one includes an extra single. Every bedroom has its own bathroom. The master suites upstairs open onto private balconies where you can watch the sun rise over the water. The bathrooms feel like a spa: freestanding soaking tubs, glass-enclosed showers, the kind of finishes you actually notice.

Downstairs flows the way a vacation home should. The living room connects to a formal dining area, a study if you need to sneak in some work, and a kitchen built for serious cooking. Step outside and the infinity pool stretches toward the horizon. There's a gazebo tucked into the tropical landscaping, an outdoor living room, and enough space to host without anyone feeling crowded.

You get a full staff: housekeeper, cook, maid, and waiter. They handle everything so you can focus on doing absolutely nothing.

Minitas Beach is minutes away. So is the Casa de Campo Marina. You're close to world-class golf, restaurants, and the charm of Altos de Chavón, but far enough to feel like you've escaped.

Villa Michelle works for families, groups of friends, or anyone who wants an oceanfront home that feels lived-in rather than staged. Rates start at $9,000 per night depending on the season.
