Description

Picture this: You wake up in Las Palmas, Casa de Campo's most coveted neighborhood. Sunlight streams through tall windows as your private chef prepares breakfast. This is life at Villa Pamela.

Four bedrooms sleep twelve guests in absolute comfort. Each room comes with its own bathroom, air conditioning, and the kind of privacy that makes family vacations actually relaxing. The master suite opens to a terrace where morning coffee tastes better with garden views.

Your days unfold between the crystal-blue pool and shaded pavilion. The outdoor dining area seats everyone for long lunches that stretch into sunset dinners. Inside, soaring ceilings and marble columns frame living spaces designed for real conversations.

The kitchen? Fully equipped with granite counters and rich wood cabinets. But honestly, with a chef included in your stay, you might only use it for midnight snacks.

Speaking of included staff, your housekeeper, chef, waiter, and gardener work from 8am to nearly midnight. Plus, 24/7 concierge means yacht charters, spa treatments, and tee times happen with one call.

Casa de Campo resort access opens doors to world-class golf, Minitas Beach, and the marina. But with a private pool, jacuzzi, and this much space, leaving feels optional.
